

DHN 2019
 COPENHAGEN

DHN

Book of abstracts
4th Conference of The Association Digital Humanities
in the Nordic Countries
Copenhagen, March 6-8 2019

Programme committee

Costanza Navarretta, University of Copenhagen (chair)
Manex Agirrezabal, University of Copenhagen
Birte Christensen-Dalsgaard, DIGHUMLAB
Matthew James Driscoll, University of Copenhagen
Koraljka Golub, Linnaeus University
Olga Holownia, British Library
Ditte Laursen, Royal Danish Library
Jun Liu, University of Copenhagen
Bente Maegaard, University of Copenhagen
Asko Nivala, University of Turku
Christian-Emil Smith Ore, University of Oslo
Sanita Reinsone, University of Latvia
Annika Rockenberger, The National Library of Norway
Henrik Smith Sivertsen, Royal Danish Library
Mikko Tolonen, University of Helsinki

Content

Translated captions of 19th century xylographies

Sofie Arneberg

Connecting the Humanities through Research Infrastructures

Sheena Dawn Bassett, Leon Wessels, Steven Krauwer, Bente Maegaard, Hella Hollander, Femmy Admiraal, Laurent Romary, Frank Uiterwaal (Parthenos)

Making Sense of Digital Humanities at the Library

Emma Burman, Wolmar Nyberg Åkerström

How your Institutional Repository supports your Digital Humanities Project

Marc Chahin, Elsevier

Robot Gestalts in Staged Performances

Henning Christiansen, Mads Høbye, Anja Mølle Lindelof

Engaging the human in digital-humanities projects: how participating in crowdsourcing projects impacts quality of life among volunteers at the Danish National Archives

Amy Clotworthy

Nýyrðavefurinn: A Website for Collection and Dissemination of Icelandic Neologisms

Trausti Dagsson, Ágústa Þorbergsdóttir, Steinþór Steingrímsson

Text as an entryway to speech – a journey into the most inaccessible areas of the archives

Rickard Domeij, Gunnar Eriksson, Eva Lindström, Erik Magnusson Petzell, Susanne Nylund Skog, Fredrik Skott, Jenny Öqvist

Epeius: a resource for the digital representation of intertextuality in Late Greek Epic

Ioannis Doukas

Reproducible Research in the Digital Humanities: A Checklist with Methods for Implementation in Python

Joseph Flanagan

Overcoming Barriers to Digital Scholarship: How Gale is working to make DH research more efficient, and available to all

Lina Gerle (Gale, A Cengage Company)

Ibsen on the Nineteenth Century Scandinavian Stage – A Network Analysis

Jens-Morten Hanssen

Sex-mining the digital bookshelf. A digital analysis of literary intercourse in Norway 1950–1970

Trond Haugen

Demonstrating BiographySampo in Solving Digital Humanities Research Problems in Biography and Prosopography

Eero Hyvonen, Petri Leskinen, Minna Tamper, Heikki Rantala, Jouni Tuominen, Kirsi Keravuori

Mapping Out Digital Collections in the Nordic Countries

Olga Holownia, Annika Rockenberger

Profiling Premodern Latin Authors

Marjo Kaartinen, Reima Välimäki, Teemu Immonen, Jesse Keskiaho

Women's "place" in Norwegian Society 1830-1880 - Discourse Analysis with the Digital

Bookshelf

Heidi Karlsen

The Gaze of the Artwork and the Symbiotic Interaction

Raivo Kelomees

Database of Local Letters to Newspapers – Digital History Project

Heikki Kokko

Lina Jonns Efterträdare: Machine Vision and Lund's Photographic History

Peter Leonard

The omnipresence of the nation

Jani Marjanen, Ruben Ros, Simon Hengchen, Mikko Tolonen

History Bits, revisiting curation in the context of (digital) pedagogies

Inés Matres

Remaking the "spitting man" - The creation, recreation and archiving of a photomeme

Mette Kia Krabbe Meyer, Eld Zierau

Emancipation of Emotions? Questioning the emotionalisation of society with emotion mining and digitised historical corpora

Milan Mikolaj van Lange, Ralf Duurt Futselaar, Ismee Tames

A TEI customization for the description of paper and watermarks

Ermenegilda Rachel Mueller

CLARIN-DK: Language data and language tools – the Danish node of an European Infrastructure

Lene Offersgaard, Mitchell John Seaton, Dorte Haltrup Hansen, Bart Jongejan

Digital notation approaches to performance of narrative poetry: An Icelandic case study

Katelin Marit Parsons

Algorithmic discrimination and its temporal logics

Ana Cosima Rughinis, Michael G. Flaherty

Ranke.2 - A Teaching Platform for Digital Source Criticism

Stefania Scagliola, Gerben Zaagsma

Nordic Library Labs

Pelle Snickars, Annika Rockenberger

Conservatism in an Innovative Field. Children's Digital Books in Sweden

Ann Marika Steiner

Experiences from the "Lived readings" project - an interdisciplinary approach to creating art and research in a DH context

Jon Svensson, Maria Sundström, Mattis Lindmark

A Presentation of the Centre for Digital Humanities at the University of Gothenburg

Nina Tahmasebi, Daniel Brodén, Niclas Hagen, Cecilia Lindhé, Jonas Åhlfeldt, Katarina Wignell

Digital Collections Relating to 19th-Century Icelandic Intellectuals and Culture Creators

Rósa Þórsteinteinsdóttir, Trausti Dagsson, Olga Holownia,

Providing open and public data: the challenges of user rights and the GDPR within the crowdsourcing projects at the Danish National Archives

Katrine Tovgaard-Olsen, Barbara Revuelta-Eugercios, Allan Vestergaard

Additions to the Periodisation of Digital Literature: the Third Generation

Piret Viires

Digital Humanities - DIGIHUM 2016-2019

Risto Pekka Vilkkö

(Im)popular typefaces and digital culture

Karin Wagner